
The World of Walt Disney

Reading Comprehension

Walt Disney

Walt Disney loved to be happy! He liked to make other people happy too!

Walt was born in 1901. He lived on a farm with his mom and dad. He had one sister and three brothers. Walt loved to draw and take pictures.

When Walt was 16, he wanted to help with the war. He wanted to join the army. They said, “No.” He asked the Red Cross if he could help, and they said, “Yes.”

After the war ended, Walt moved to Hollywood in California. He only had $40.00, some pencils, and some paper.

Walt’s brother, Roy Disney, was waiting for him in Hollywood. Walt made up Mickey Mouse. Then Walt and Roy made him into a movie. People really liked it! They wanted more, so Walt made more movies.

He also made a park that was lots of fun. There are rides there that make people happy. Do you know what this park is called?
